1. AwesomeStories Breakthrough in Learning

2. Bridging Stories to Learning

3. AwesomeStories Leadership

4. Awesome Teacher Leaders

Teachers, media specialists, librarians, principals, district directors, college professors, tutors, continuing education instructors and education writers have all worked with us as Awesome Teacher Leaders! With their guidance and contributions, we build apps, expand website functionality and continuously add to AwesomeStories content and community.

As teachers build stories and lesson plans/assignments, our ATLs and membership team have consistently provided invaluable advice and technical support. We are story-driven, but we are also teacher-driven!

Awesome Teacher Leaders have made onsite and online presentations to demonstrate use of stories, primary sources, and media to support the Common Core. ATLs implement AwesomeStories in their own school, and spread the word in other schools and districts. Contact membership@awesomestories.org to connect with an ATL in your area!
