8. Chapter 8: The World Honors the Dalai Lama

Tenzin Gyatso, who was born to be the Dalai Lama, leader of the country of Tibet, is living today in exile in India because he was forced out of his country by the invading Chinese army. He is still recognized as the spiritual leader of his country by the Tibetan people, even though his country technically no longer exists. But the story of how he became the Dalai Lama, and the tragedy that happened to him afterwards, has fascinated the world. This is that story.
