4. Anna Ladd After the War

Among the sculptures which Anna Coleman Ladd created, after WWI, is this bust of the famous aviatrix Amelia Earhart.

Anna Ladd returned to the United States in December of 1918 where she resumed her career as a sculptor. Sometime in the late 1930s she and her husband moved to California where she remained active as an artist. Anna died in Montecito, California on June 4, 1939. She was survived by her husband and two daughters.
