

0. World War II, Words and Love - Story Preface

1. The War That Saved Ada's Life
2. Operation Pied Piper
3. Her Disability Will Not Stop Her
4. Keep Calm and Carry On

Ada had a disability that made it difficult for her to walk. Mam was ashamed of Ada, locked her up in their flat and rarely let her out. Ada's brother Jamie was her link to the outside world. Ada decided to live her life for Jamie when she escaped with him to the English countryside.

Ada jumped into her new life with what she thought was an open mind. At times her disability slowed her down, but it did not stop her from living.

Questions 2 Ponder

How Do We Distinguish between Words that Help or Hurt?

Why do some people feel uncomfortable around people with disabilities?

Why do some people feel it is okay to hurt others with their words?

If you witness others hurting another person with their words, is it appropriate for you to say something to the offending individuals? Why, or why not?

Have you ever helped another person in that way? How did your actions make you feel?
