The greatest of the seven wonders, in my opinion, is the Colossus of Rhodes.

This giant wonder stood at 110 feet atop a 50-foot pedestal. It was built to commemorate war victory in Rhodes in modern Greece. It was built 292-280 BC and destroyed in 226 BC by

It was built to commemorate war victory in Rhodes in modern Greece. It was built 292-280 BC and destroyed in 226 BC by an earthquake. The Colossus was made of bronze plates and iron framework.
