TELL ME A STORY

By Janice Veldman

Tell me a story, grandma

Once upon a time
there was a little boy who happened to Have the same name as you
He loved adventure
This is a tale of such that the two of them wandered off into a land into which only the two of them walked

Tell me a story grandma
There is no more to tell Her lips turning down

Then I shall tell you one Once upon a time
a little boy who happened to have my name and his grandma…
Quietly she listened and after a time her lips turned upward

The story unfamiliar
The time spent a dim recall
A moment shared that seemed familiar She does not know him Though there may have been an adventurous boy.
